ABOUT THE SPEAKER

MARC DOUCET is the Senior Chaplain at Toronto Western Hospital, part of the University Health Network. He earned his B.A. and M.Div degrees from the University of Toronto, and is a certified specialist and teaching supervisor with CAPPE, the Canadian Association for Pastoral Practice and Education. He began his career in hospital ministry in 1989 at Hotel Dieu Hospital in Windsor, Ontario and has subsequently worked at Credit Valley and St. Michael's Hospitals. Prior to working within health care, he was involved in congregational ministry for nine years throughout Southwestern Ontario. Marc is an Adjunct Faculty member of the Toronto School of Theology of the University of Toronto.

TORONTO WESTERN HOSPITAL is a world leader in neuroscience. It is constantly pushing the boundaries of research, offering pioneering treatments and using state-of-the-art technology. The hospital also has a strong community focus, providing innovative programs for and information to children, seniors, diabetes patients and many multicultural groups. With expertise in musculoskeletal health and arthritis, the hospital's programs also include orthopaedics, rheumatology and the hand program as well as a busy Emergency Department that sees more than 40,000 patients yearly.
