ABOUT THE SPEAKER

ANITA EKSTEIN, child survivor of the Holocaust, will share her personal experiences during World War II. Anita was born on July 18, 1934 in Lvov, Poland. Her parents' names were Edzia and Fischel Helfgott. Her mother was murdered in the Belzec death camp in October 1942 and her father was murdered in 1943. Anita was hidden in 1942 by a Polish Christian family, then in 1943 by a priest. Anita was liberated in 1945 and came to Canada in 1948 with a surviving aunt.

"Holocaust" is a Greek translation of the Hebrew word "Olla" meaning "a sacrifice which is wholly consumed by fire." Another expression frequently used for the Holocaust is the Hebrew word "Shoah," and in Yiddish "Khurbn," which was the term applied to the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem 2000 years ago.
